

TAU DELTA OMEGA ANNOUNCES PLANS FOR COMBINED RUMMAGE, FOOD SALE

Tau Delta Omegas decided to hold a combination rummage and food sale Nov. 15, when they met at the home of Clara Walgren, 2097 22nd st., last Monday. Time and place of the sale will be announced at a later date.

Kay Shelton and Clara Walgren were appointed as flower committee chairmen.

After the business meeting a delightful shower was held in honor of Mrs. Jackie Colburn on her tenth wedding anniversary. Among other lovely gifts, she received an Ivy-filled copper skillet from the club.

Each member wore a hibiscus corsage and Mrs. Colburn was presented with a bridal bouquet of hydrangeas.

Kay Shelton and Marcella Smith were high scorers at a five-hundred game.

At a previous meeting a "gallop" was started by Helen Smith, ending up at Mrs. Colburn's home in Hawthorne. Mrs. Irma Gossiaux, honorary member of Arvin, Calif., and formerly of Torrance, attended as guest of the club.
